SPRINGDALE, Arkansas – Conservative Republican State Representative Clint Penzo today announced his campaign for State Senate District 31, which includes parts of Springdale, Tontitown, Elm Springs, and Johnson. Penzo has served three terms in the Arkansas House of Representatives where he has been a proven Christian conservative leader with 100% pro-life voting record, a strong record of defending the Second Amendment, and a community-minded legislator who has championed issues important to the Latino and Marshallese communities.

“I have a strong conservative record of fighting for individual liberty and limited government, opposing vaccine mandates, and opposing tax increases,” said Penzo. “The citizens of Senate District 31 don’t have to wonder what kind of Senator I will be; I have a strong conservative voting record that backs up the issues I know are important to our district.”

If elected to the State Senate, Penzo promises to continue to be a commonsense conservative legislator, who fights against government overreach. District 31 deserves an experienced leader with a history of supporting small businesses, advocating for school choice, and staunchly opposing tax increases.

Penzo is a Washington County native, who has lived in District 31 all his life. He is a proud Springdale Bulldog and Arkansas Razorback (B.S.). He spent five years working as a physical therapist assistant helping rehabilitate stroke victims, orthopedic patients, and senior citizens. Additionally, Penzo has worked in construction and has spent the last 18 years as a successful Realtor helping countless families purchase their first homes.

Penzo is married to Allison, who works with Clint in their real estate business. They are members of St. Joseph’s Catholic Church. Penzo is a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Springdale Chamber of Commerce, Springdale Rotary Club, National Association of Realtors, OCA Board, and the Grape Festival Committee. He was named on the Northwest Arkansas Business Journal’s 40 under 40 list, an annual list of young business and political leaders. Penzo currently serves on the Arkansas House Public Health, Welfare and Labor Committee, the Arkansas House Insurance and Commerce Committee, and is the Vice-Chairperson of Joint Energy Committee.

State law prevented Penzo and other current members of the Arkansas House from running in the special election for the seat vacated by former Senator Lance Eads.
